

Native American Month
BE A MODERN DAY WARRIOR.
NATIVE AMERICAN RIGHTS FUND

Featured Speaker:
Amy Bowers (Yurok),
NARF attorney

Ms. Bowers will speak about the most pressing issues impacting Native Americans, including human rights, global warming, religious freedom and education.

The Boulder Public Library &
the Native American Rights Fund (NARF) are proud to present a special event in honor of National Native American Heritage Month

Tuesday, November 18th, 2008

6:30-8:30PM-FREE EVENT

Boulder Public Library Auditorium

1000 Canyon Blvd. Boulder, CO 80302

(Main entrance and extensive FREE parking located at 11th & Arapahoe)

-Screening of NARF Short Documentary "Modern Day Warriors," a new film on the history of the Native American rights movement

-Reception with Native American foods offered

-Featured Speaker: Amy Bowers (Yurok), NARF attorney

For more information contact: Ghada at 303.441.4941 or Crystal at 303.447.8760, crystal@narf.org